Creating Bliss

A Kink Relationship Dynamics Workshop with Lady Petra and Saffermaster, the hosts of the Kinky Cocktail Hour podcast. Both Lady Petra and Saffermaster are lifetime coaches and for the past several years have offered versions of this workshop at DomCon as well as to groups of clinical psychologists and social workers who's clients include kinksters.

This one day workshop is divided into two parts, the first part gets at the nitty gritty of how to create a great relationship with your partner(s) and the second part, gets at how to maintain a great relationship with your partner(s). This is not a workshop offering tips and tricks. Instead, the leaders show you how to take control of your relationship in a meaningful and effective way.

Quote of the Month

“By all means be submissive in the bedroom (if you are that way inclined), but don't be submissive to life. Being life's bitch is no fun at all. Life may play up in many ways, but it's up to you to take control, take charge and show life who's really calling the shots.”
